In the event hiring opportunities arise during the roster's term of validity, positions will be filled from the roster of eligible candidates. For final appointment, the District reserves the right to use the "rule of five", provided there are at least five candidates on the eligibility roster. If there is more than one vacancy, consideration will be given to the number of vacancies plus four. The District will accept an eligibility roster of one, but reserves the right to discard the entire roster if deemed necessary.

In accordance with District Policy and Labor Agreement, appointments are subject to a 12 month trial service period.
